

Guides for Building Usable Websites

- Usability matters more than visibility. Easy to navigate through high-value contents, contextual and user-centric responses, flexibility and control.

1. Home Page

- a. -visual appeal
- b. -header / footer
- c. -navigation bar
- d. -member login

2. Content Page

- a. - 4 to 6 pages
- b. - scalable layout
- c. - context sensitive
- d. - ease of navigation

3. CSS

- a. - use of style sheets
- b. - styling for impact
- c. - consistent styles

4. JS

- a. - login validation
- b. - event handlings
- c. - use of functions

5. PHP

- a. - page control
- b. - cookie / sessions
- c. - href / URL
- d. - gpc variables
- e. - server variables

6. DB

- a. - 3 to 4 tables
- b. - CRUD functions
- c. - Grouping / Aggregating
- d. - data analytics

7. Others

- a. -mail function
- b. - admin page
- c. - others